WELCOME MESSAGE

It is with great honor and pleasure that we invite you to attend, Pediatric Nutrition Updates, Nurses Edition: A Workshop Series

It is crucial in the medical field to keep up with all the new guidelines, the latest research, and current innovation. How if it is related to our children, who are the promising future of our region? From this point of view, our interest in these workshops that keep our guardian angels on point with pediatric nutrition.

Dear Nurses, it was said, "Nurses dispense comfort, compassion, and caring. "without even a prescription" and that's why we owe a lot! We promise you an exceptional three-day experience, condensed with scientific information, new studies, medical research, and updated strategies.

We wish you a delightful and enriching journey, hoping that by the end of this meeting, we can all learn to appreciate the power of science all over again, power that is capable of saving our kids and their future.
